Notice to Subscribers

During recent years publishers have been obliged to consider seriously questions brought about by the increased cost of manufacture.

The total income of the American Journal of Semitic Languages and Literatures, including subscriptions and the contributions of the University and of individuals, is practically the same from year to year, while the cost of labor, paper, printing, and publishing has become constantly greater.

The cost of production could be reduced by cutting down the number of pages per volume, but this would detract from the dignity and value of the magazine. Therefore to meet the demands of changed conditions and maintain the relative efficiency of the Journal it has been decided to raise the present subscription price.

Accordingly, beginning with July 1, 1920, the price of the Amercan Journal of Semitic Languages and Literatures was changed to $5.00 a year for domestic subscriptions; single numbers $1.25 each. On all subscriptions received prior to July 1, the Journal will be supplied at the old rate.

Postage charges will continue as follows: For Canada, 15 cents on annual subscriptions (total $5.15), on single numbers 4 cents (total $1.29); for all other countries in the Postal Union, 26 cents on annual subscriptions (total $5.26), on single numbers 9 cents (total $1.34).

A Manual for Writers

By JOHN M. MANLY
Head of the Department of English of the University of Chicago and JOHN A. POWELL

A book designed to aid authors and all others who are concerned with the writing of English. It treats in a clear and convenient way the matters of grammar, spelling, and general form about which writers need to be informed, and gives full directions on the preparation of "copy" for the printer and the correcting of proof. The chapter on letter-writing is unique and gives just the help that is constantly wanted and that is not found in other manuals.
